Are You Career Ready?

Master these competencies for a successful transition into the workplace.
Learn how a political science degree helps you develop these skills.

critical thinking/problem solving teamwork/collaboration oral/written communication skills career management

professionalism/work ethic leadership

information technology application

Adapted from the NACE Career Readiness Competencies