

CofC Political Science Newsletter

Greetings from Charleston!

Along with highlights from the past semester, we are excited to announce a new award within the department: The John Creed Award. This award was created to honor Dr. Creed's extraordinary commitment to student learning, intellectual curiosity, global awareness, and personal development. It will support internships, study abroad, research, conference presentations or workshops for junior or senior political science majors. Please consider making a donation in honor of this treasured professor. Go to <https://giving.cofc.edu/john-creed-award-information> for more information.

Alumni Spotlight

Johnnie Baxley '92 is a partner at Willson, Jones, Carter & Baxley, P.A. After graduating with a B.A. in Political Science, Baxley attended the University of South Carolina School of Law. He currently lives and practices law in the Charleston area and is active on several boards of the College. Read more »

Student Spotlight

Olivia Rothstein '20 is a double major in political science and historic preservation. She is an active member of the Student Government Association, served as a Peer Facilitator for the Honors College, and is a student worker in the Political Science Department. Read more »

Faculty Spotlight

Dr. Claire Curtis has been teaching in the political science department at the College of Charleston for twenty years. Since joining the department, she has taught classes in political theory, including the required introduction to political theory course, contemporary liberalism, and utopia/dystopia. Read more »

Water Expert Gives Convocation of Majors Speech

On March 29th, the Political Science Department hosted Dr. Peter Gleick, founder of the Pacific Institute for the Spring 2018 Convocation of Majors. Read more »

Welcome Dr. Briana McGinnis

Dr. Briana McGinnis will be joining the Department of Political Science in fall 2018. Her research and teaching interests focus on political thought and law, specifically in terms of citizenship, migration, and discipline/punishment. Read more »

CONTACT INFORMATION

Questions?

Tracey Andrews

Administrative Coordinator

Phone:
(843) 953-5724

Email:
andrewst@cofc.edu

Website:
polisci.cofc.edu

LET'S GET SOCIAL

COLLEGE of CHARLESTON

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION