Comparative Gender Politics POLI 350.001
(Spring 2014)

Course Description
What counts as female? What counts as male? Where did our ideas about femininity and masculinity come from? Do we all answer these questions in the same way? How do we make connections among women, and across place and time? Answering such questions requires us to look at how societies are organized, and at the ways in which we, individually and collectively, accept, participate in and challenge gendered definitions of our lives. To do this, we will take an approach that can best be summarized by the phrase: Thinking backwards and thinking outwards. This means that issues are looked at historically, and are also situated in a global context. The aim of this is three-fold: To encourage us to develop critical questions about aspects of our daily realities that we take for granted; to enable us to make connections between and think about differences across the experiences of women in diverse countries and locations; and to allow us to explore how society works, in order to think about and evaluate strategies for making social change. We will situate this discussion against the backdrop of some key issues facing us in the world today: Women’s Political Participation, militarization; ethnic cleansing; poverty alleviation and structural adjustment; women and the global assembly line; tourism and the sex trade; trafficking; human rights; anti-globalization movements; popular culture; migration and refugee issues.

Learning Outcomes:
1. Demonstrate Knowledge of various ideas of gender cross-nationally
2. Illustrate connections between and think about differences across the experiences of women and men in diverse countries and locations

Course Requirements
1. Class Participation counts for 10% of your final grade.
The course will employ both lecture and discussion. However, for the most part it will be conducted like a seminar. Each student is required to turn in two discussion questions, based on your readings, to me via OAKS by 7 am the day of class - discussion questions will not be accepted anytime after 7am. Please also note that failing to show up to class despite the fact that you have turned in questions to me via OAKS will not count as having turned in discussion questions. Failure to turn in and not show up to class will significantly lower your participation grade (which is 10% of your final grade). Active student participation in class discussion is imperative. Students, therefore, are required to come to class having read the assigned readings critically. (Note that you cannot participate if you are not present!) The readings require careful attention as they raise many complex questions for us to consider. Much of the material is also difficult in another way, as it asks critical questions about things that we often take for granted, or see as given, in our society. Accordingly, there will often be contentious issues raised in the classroom. Mutual respect and open-ness are minimum guarantees for any discussion.

Handout #1 (Discussion Questions)

II. Critical Reflections of 8 Chapters from “Global Woman ...” will count for 10% of your final grade. Each student will turn into me a 2-3 page critical reflection of 8 selected chapters. Two chapters will be due on or before Friday January 24th, two chapters on or before Friday February 12th, two chapters on or before Sunday February 23rd by 4PM via OAK, and the last two chapters on Tuesday March 11th in class. All papers must be uploaded to the respective Critical Reflections folder in the dropbox section of OAKS, except for the last two critical reflections which will be turned in hard copy format on Tuesday March 12th. Further details on what is expected for each reflection can be found on OAKS under the heading Handout #2 Critical Reflection guide.

III. Concept / Media presentations and discussion – To connect course material with the world beyond the classroom, another component of the course is finding and discussing news or other real-world items that illustrate concepts, ideas, or issues from the assigned readings. Each class session, two students, as a team, will be asked to define a concept from the readings find a media source that illustrates that concept, and explain the concept to the class and how the media piece illustrates it. You are required to submit a short, one paragraph definition of the concept and one paragraph explanation for how the media source illustrates the concept. This should be submitted to me via email (send to francah@cofc.edu) by noon the day before your presentation. You are also required to generate two to three discussion questions based both on your media source and concept, but also on the other content assigned for that day. Include these discussion questions on page 2 of your emailed document. We will address your questions in class.

The concept / media presentations count towards 15% of your grade. See Handout “Evaluating Concept and Media Presentations” for the specific guidelines that I will use to evaluate your work on OAKS

SPECIAL NOTE: Failure to conduct your presentation on the date scheduled will result in a zero for that presentation. No make-ups will be issued.

IV. Mid-Term Exam counts for 20% of your final grade.
The mid-term exam will consist of approximately seven (7) to ten (10) terms for which students will be required to write brief descriptions. Additionally, students will be required to choose one (1) essay question from among a list of three (3) questions to answer. The entire exam will draw on all class discussions, presentations, and readings done prior to Feb. 27th. The scheduled date for the mid-term is Feb. 27th.

V. Course Paper and presentation counts for 30% of your final grade- 15% each.
The course paper assignment is to analyze the life and times of an individual or group fighting for gender equality. You are to do a biographical sketch of this individual or group. A hand out will be distributed describing what is to be addressed in this paper. The paper should be ten (10) to twelve (12) pages in length typed, double spaced. Students are expected to present a synopsis of their paper during the last two weeks of class. The course paper is due Friday April 25th. (Note: under no circumstances will late papers be accepted!) Handout No.3 (paper expectations) and Handout No.4 (oral presentation expectations)

VI. Final Exam (take-home counts for 15% of your grade.)
The final is a take home exam which will consist of two essays. Exams are due Saturday April 26th by 11am Via OAKS under the tag Final Exam.

 Note: If you have a disability of any kind- learning, physical, psychological- which requires accommodation, please let me know early so that your learning needs can be appropriately met.

Note: Please ensure that all Laptops, Cell phones and other electronic devices are turned off before entering the class room. Failure to adhere to this rule will result in you being reported to the Honor’s Board and the possibility of suspension from the College.

Note: Extra Credit; This semester there maybe a number of events/lectures on campus. Extra credit will be offered for attending a maximum of 2 (two) events. For each event you are required to (1) summarize briefly what happened or what you did, what you heard or saw or experienced; (2) relate the ideas discussed or portrayed at the event to a class discussion and or articles read in class; (3) finally you are expected to react to the event by relating what your overall impressions, position, and or strengths and weaknesses of the ideas presented. No less than 1 page no more than 2 pages typed double spaced (with 1 inch margins) will be accepted. For each extra credit assignment you can receive a maximum of 6 points (providing of course you meet all of the requirements). Hence you stand the chance of receiving 6 extra points which will be added on to your final grade at the end of the semester. You may submit extra credit assignments through-out the semester at anytime. However, all extra credit submissions must be made by the last day of class by 1 pm via OAKS dropbox-Extra Credit assignments (Events, times and locations will be announced later)
