EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Administrative Appointments

Dean, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, College of Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina, June 2019-present (Interim from June 2019-October 2020)

As Dean, I lead an office that includes an associate dean, budget officer, assistant to the dean/director of marketing and communications, and senior development officer. The school has a budget of approximately $20 million and includes 150 full-time faculty, 8 academic departments, 2 interdisciplinary programs, 12 undergraduate majors, 28 minors, 7 master's degree programs, and the Riley Center for Livable Communities. In fall 2021, there were 2,216 undergraduate student majors and 147 graduate students.

I worked with colleagues to accomplish the following:

- Over $4 million in gifts for key HSS priorities including the Dean's Discretionary Fund and student scholarships
- Led school-wide strategic planning process to develop a new mission, vision, and strategic goals
- Creation of pilot program to provide support for students from underrepresented groups majoring in HSS disciplines
- Establishment of executive-in-residence program to provide career coaching and advice for HSS students
- Creation of HSS Podcast, "The Teacher-Scholar," raising HSS profile and promoting HSS faculty
- Strategic marketing of HSS programs using updated promotional materials and enhanced social media presence
- Creation of HSS Ambassadors initiative to enhance the school's profile and provide an opportunity for student involvement in school-wide initiatives
- Transparent and collaborative process for prioritizing replacement faculty positions in HSS
- Financial support for faculty professional development through Dean's Discretionary Fund
- High profile Bully Pulpit events with 2020 presidential candidates creating unique learning opportunities for HSS students

Interim Faculty Athletics Representative, College of Charleston, August 2021-June 2022

As the Interim Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR), I reported directly to the President and served as the liaison between the faculty and the Department of Athletics. I represented the university at the Colonial Athletic Association and worked closely with the College of Charleston's Director of Athletics, Senior Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Success/Senior Woman Administrator, and Senior Associate Athletics Director for Compliance.

Interim Dean, the Graduate School, University of Charleston, SC, January 2021-May 2021

As Interim Dean, I oversaw two dozen graduate programs and led an office of four professional staff and an associate dean. Our office managed recruitment, admissions, curriculum, scholarships, and assistantships, and I served as chair of the Graduate Council.

Chair, Department of Political Science, College of Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina, July 2012-May 2019

As Department Chair, I led a department with 26 full-time and part-time faculty, an administrative coordinator, and a budget of approximately $2.3 million. The department had about 400 undergraduate majors and offered a minor in political science, a minor in geography, a concentration in public policy, and a concentration in politics, philosophy, and law. The department also made contributions to interdisciplinary programs including international studies; Latin American and Caribbean studies; African studies; Asian studies; Middle Eastern and Islamic world studies; environmental and sustainability studies; crime, law, and society; public health; public administration; urban studies; and women's and gender studies.

I worked with colleagues to accomplish the following:

- Over $50,000 in gifts to support scholarships, faculty development, and engaged learning initiatives
- Creation of Intellectual Life Committee to coordinate department's guest speakers and Convocation of Majors event
- Adoption of department's Tenure and Promotion Guidelines
- Creation and adoption of departmental by-laws
- Enhanced social media presence with department Facebook and LinkedIn pages
- Creation of faculty mentoring program to provide support to newly hired tenure-track faculty
- Formation of ad hoc Student Recruitment and Retention Committee to develop a more systematic approach to increasing enrollments and ensuring student success
- Visits from 2016 presidential candidates, 2018 gubernatorial primary debates, and a 2015 Charleston mayoral debate along with Bully Pulpit team
- Creation of revised learning outcomes and updated mission statement
- Established Alumni mentorship program for students
- Facilitated strong study abroad programming in countries including Spain, Morocco, Cambodia, Vietnam, Germany, France, Belgium, Luxembourg, Rwanda, and Uganda
- Support for department's engaged learning initiatives including mock trial, model united nations, and model African union
- Established public policy concentration for political science majors

Interim Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, North Carolina, June 2011-June 2012

As Interim Dean, I led an office staff that included two associate deans, an executive assistant, business officer, and administrative support specialist. I also managed a budget of approximately $15 million and oversaw 11 academic departments spanning the humanities, social sciences, and sciences and mathematics. The college included approximately 2,000 undergraduate majors and graduate students and 180 fulltime faculty. The college also had numerous interdisciplinary programs including international studies, Cherokee studies, and culturally based native health as well as 5 graduate degree programs.

I worked with colleagues to accomplish the following:

- Redesign of enrollment management approach in collaboration with College's leadership team
- Restructuring of dean's office staffing, moving from two associate deans to one associate dean in response to university budget cuts
- New Arts and Sciences promotional materials used for student recruitment and university Open House events
- Enhanced procedures to increase transfer students in Arts and Sciences disciplines
- Increased focus on faculty advising to increase retention rate and student success
- A distinguished professorship in public policy
- Increased administrative support in Department of Philosophy and Religion, upgrading existing position from part-time to full-time administrative support associate

Head, Department of Political Science and Public Affairs. Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, North Carolina, January 2008-June 2011

As Department Head, I led a department of 15 full-time and part-time faculty and an administrative support specialist. The department had approximately 100 undergraduate majors and 50 graduate Master of Public Affairs students. The department included an MPA degree, BA and BS in political science, a minor in political science, and a minor in international studies. The department also included the Public Policy Institute and the Local Government Training Program, key outreach units.

I worked with colleagues to accomplish the following:

- Over $50,000 in gifts to support scholarships, faculty development, and engaged learning initiatives
- Creation of Political Science Club to increase student involvement in major and grow enrollment
- Served as a pilot department for the university's Quality Enhancement Plan to help students better connect in-class and out-of-class experiences
- Creation of Collegial Review Document clarifying expectations for teaching, research, and service
- Started departmental newsletter to build relationships and increase communication with alumni
- Establishment of Teaching Committee to formalize peer review process for faculty
- Creation of Recruitment Committee to increase the quality and quantity of students in our undergraduate and graduate programs
- Redesign of curriculum, including the creation of a portfolio course and an engaged experience requirement for all students
- Enhanced study abroad programing, utilizing university's partnership with the Middelburg Center for Transatlantic Studies in The Netherlands
- Increased support and participation in high impact learning initiatives including the Model United Nations program and student trips to Washington, D.C.

Associate Dean, Graduate School and Research. Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, North Carolina, July 2005-December 2007

As Associate Dean, I served as the chief operations officer for the Graduate School, supervised six employees, and reported to the Dean. Our office oversaw doctoral programs and 26 master's degree programs.

I worked with colleagues to accomplish the following:

- Creation of online graduate student orientation
- Selection and implementation of comprehensive prospect management and online application software
- New admission categories for Graduate School
- Updated marketing plan and allocation of recruitment dollars to programs
- Creation of consistent marketing materials for graduate programs used to help grow enrollment
- Coordination of Annual Graduate Research Symposium
- Successful Banner implementation for unit, serving as functional lead
- Creation of a Technology Applications Analyst position in the Graduate School
- Coordination of Graduate School's successful SACS reaccreditation

Faculty Athletics Representative, Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, North Carolina, April 2003-June 2012

As the Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR), I reported directly to the chancellor and served as the liaison between the faculty and the Department of Athletics. I represented the university as the voting member at Southern Conference meetings and served as an ex-officio member of the University Athletics Committee. Specific duties and outcomes included:

- Selection by NCAA Management Council as a member of the NCAA Honors Committee and served as chair in 2009-2010
- Member of steering committee for successful NCAA Self-Study
- Chair of search for Western Carolina University Director of Athletics
- Elected Vice-President of the Southern Conference in 2009 and President in 2011
- Member of search committee for Southern Conference Commissioner
- Member of numerous search committees for coaching and administrative positions in the Department of Athletics
- Work with student-athletes to apply for and receive post-graduate scholarships
- Creation of post-graduate scholarships website for student athletes
- Chair of the Southern Conference Graduate Scholarship Committee, redesign of procedures
- Active participation in Southern Conference committee work that included membership on Finance, Investment, Cross Country, Television, Constitution & Bylaws, and Graduate Scholarship committees
- Design and implementation of online student-athlete satisfaction survey
- Attendance at weekly management team meetings for the Department of Athletics
- Membership on the Athletics Hall of Fame Committee

Director, Master of Public Affairs, Political Science and Public Affairs, Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, North Carolina, January 2003-June 2005

As the Program Director, I managed the graduate program and served as the advisor and primary contact person for over 50 graduate students. Courses for the graduate program were offered in Cullowhee and Asheville.

I worked with colleagues to accomplish the following:

- Successful external review during the 2004-2005 academic year
- Improved enrollment management functions for program
- Updated recruitment strategies for program
- Curriculum changes including the development of new courses
- Enhanced partnerships with community partners including an initiative with the City of Asheville to provide financial support to graduate students
