D) Event Attendance/ Response Paper	5%

There will be no midterm or final exam.

MAKE UP TESTS:

Make-up tests are allowed throughout the semester. However, all make up tests must be scheduled at the Instructor's convenience. You are responsible for keeping up with the specific test you need to take. No tests can be made up after the final day of class at the end of the semester.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student should be competent to perform the following tasks:

1. Identify the elements necessary to prove specific criminal activity;
2. Recognize defenses to criminal charges;
3. Exhibit a basic understanding of how the criminal law of South Carolina is established and how to locate the written law and reported criminal cases of Appellate Courts, Federal and State.
4. Obtain a general knowledge and understanding of how the Criminal Process functions.
5. Conceptualize a true understanding of how the Criminal Justice system truly works.

SPEAKERS and FILMS:

All speakers and films shown in the class are material that is subject to testing. The speakers and films serve as a key asset in the understanding of the Criminal Justice system as a whole.

LECTURE/EVENT RESPONSE PAPERS:

Students are required to attend ONE lecture/event outside of class and to submit a one page response to the event/lecture linking the topic of the event/lecture to a class reading/discussion.

CLASS PROJECT:

Details will be given out at a later point during the semester. The project will not be due until the exam date. I will provide a full explanation of the project as well as answer any questions related to the assignment throughout the semester.

The lectures/events (subject to instructor approval) will be announced in class, posted on the syllabus or found in the weekly e-mails from the Department of Political Science.

EXTRA CREDIT:

Outside of class assignments will be available for extra credit throughout the semester.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:

Before attending classes, you must meet all prerequisites and officially register for all courses. Prompt and regular attendance is your responsibility. You are responsible for all material covered and all assignments made in class. Any time you are absent from a class, or other scheduled events, it is your responsibility to make satisfactory arrangements for any make-up work permitted by the instructor. An absence is defined as nonattendance for any reason, including illness, emergency or official leave. If you arrive late to class please just make sure you come in quietly and sign the role at the end of class. All class sessions are important. Any time you miss a class you increase your risk of making a lower grade. I do count your class participation as a substantial percentage of your grade.

INSTRUCTOR AVAILABILITY:

Feel free to contact me via email or phone (cell or office) anytime with questions or concerns. I enjoy hearing from the students so please do not hesitate to contact me.

HONOR CODE:

Lying, cheating, attempted cheating, and plagiarism are violations of our Honor Code that, when suspected, are investigated. Each incident will be examined to determine the degree of deception involved.

Incidents where the instructor determines the student's actions are related more to misunderstanding and confusion will be handled by the instructor. The instructor designs an intervention or assigns a grade reduction to help prevent the student from repeating the error. The response is recorded on a form and signed both by the instructor and the student. It is forwarded to the Office of the Dean of Students and placed in the student's file.

Cases of suspected academic dishonesty will be reported directly by the instructor and/or others having knowledge of the incident to the Dean of Students. A student found responsible by the Honor Board for academic dishonesty will receive a XXF in the course, indicating failure of the course due to academic dishonesty. This status indicator will appear on the student's transcript for two years after which the student may petition for the XX to be expunged. The F is permanent.

Research conducted and/or papers written for other classes cannot be used in whole or in part for any assignment in this class without obtaining prior permission from the instructor.

Students can find the complete Honor Code and all related processes in the Student Handbook at: <http://deanofstudents.cofc.edu/honor-system/studenthandbook/>.

ACCOMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITES:

Any student eligible for and needing accommodations because of a disability is requested to speak with the professor during the first two weeks of class or as soon as the student has been approved for services so that reasonable accommodations can be arranged. Center for Disability Services/SNAP.
